Youth Action Conference Program Advertisement Guidelines

- The Youth Action Conference Planning Committee will randomly assign placements of advertisements in the program book. You may request a certain section by writing to Johanna Bear and we will do our best to accommodate.
- The Youth Action Conference Planning Committee may reject any advertisement which it believes to either be inappropriate for printing in the program book or not up to our design standards. If there is a decision to decline printing an advertisement, any funds received will be fully refunded.
- All advertisers are wholly liable for any violations of a patent or copyright, or for plagiarizing an artist or writer in the content of the submission.
- The Pennsylvania Youth Congress Foundation shall print advertisements as they are received and will share no responsibility for errors or omissions in the submission.
